Clarksburg Heritage Day

This year's Clarksburg Heritage Day was held June 23rd on the Clarksburg Elementary School grounds. The Clarksburg Chamber of Commerce was there representing our local businesses and strengthening our community connections. (Top Photo courtesy of Utter Dental)

Clarksburg Heritage Day is an annual event is sponsored and run by the Clarksburg Historical Society who has amassed an impressive number of photos, newspaper articles, old tools, and other items relevant to our community's 266 year history.

Did you know there is a preserved two-room school house in our community? That was news to me and I really enjoyed checking out the many items on display from that by-gone era.

The Historical Society's collection is a great source of information on early citizens whose names are now part of our daily life – Wilson Wims, Hallie Wells, and others.

A representative from the Hyattstown Volunteer Fire Company was there too with free firefighter hats for the kids. The local 4-H chapter provided food and snacks. And our Clarksburg Chamber of Commerce Team also provided twenty-five free goodie bags for Heritage Day attendees.

If you missed this year's event, please watch for the 2019 date and put it on your calendar. It is fabulous FREE fun for the whole family with a full day of activities for the kids – moon bounce, carnival train ride, coloring contest, face painting, 'make and take' crafts, and more!
